

1. Tomorrow is...

Nobody knows about tomorrow
When the time has come, the cherry blossoms will bloom
There are days when all things look fading
When the night turned up, it might be a wonderful day...

No more argument
Everyone wants what they don't have
But it's only nothing special about it when time passed

Nobody knows about tomorrow
While we don't realize, the mulberry has fallen

Without noticing what is important Here I am who have lived as freely

In billions of galaxies
Billions of years have passed I still don't get so many things
Even where I am

No more argument
Everyone wants what they don't have
But it's only nothing special about it when time passed

Nobody knows about tomorrow
When the time will come, a flock of birds migrates

Whatever we do, whatever we don't,
Eventually, the wind blows and the leaves are falling

2. To the island of south

Let me take you to the island of south where far away from here without telling it

No need money, no need anything, we only need the pillar and roof for our house

No need clothing, no need anything, I only need is you

Plow the fields to make some vegetables

Dive into the sea and catch fish and shellfish, that will what we do for our life

A squall shower, wash ourselves, take off all clothes

How nice feeling! It feels good, it feels good

When the rain stops, feels so hungry, let's get ready for dinner I'm so busy, you are busy, we are busy!!

Let's bonfire, cook the fishes, get drink of palm wine

Let's talk about today before the morning comes

Let's sing a song with my guitar by beach

The romantic night of shining Southern Cross

When we go to bed, close our eyes and listen to waves

Cuddling each other, think about tomorrow when tomorrow comes

Let me take you to the island of south where far away from here
without telling it

to the island of south, to the island of south,,,

3. A Sunday without you

The morning without you, is a sad blue sky
A coffee to drink all by myself, A TV to watch all by myself
The morning without you, is a sigh at balcony
It's a flower pot I have forgotten to watering

Swaying in the wind, a passing Sunday
The Sunday without you

If the time passed, a people change too but there are something won't change
So we can move on
The time to piling over, The time to flowing away
So much time we spent together, didn't we?

The morning without you, is a cold blue sky
A coffee to drink all by myself, A TV to watch all by myself

Swaying in the wind, a passing Sunday
The Sunday without you

4. Mysterious person

There is me, who is mysterious, i met and live a day
There is me, who is mysterious, is asking me today too

A nice words and shiny colors, i have met so much by now
When will I find my own words and my own colors

There is me, who is mysterious, i met and live a day

There is me, who is mysterious,
I have keeping the journey to look for Time has passed, tired to walk, and stop there, to the night sky which i look up

The brilliance of countless starlight is the story that I lived
All the pain and sadness are the proof that I lived

There is me, who is mysterious,
I will start moving again today too

Until when to sing the song with my own words and to draw the picture with my own colors

Until when to sing the song with my own words and to draw the picture with my own colors

5. Leila

* Pausada Boa Viagem Leila, Saudage para Voce Leila,

I was looking for you wherever I am

You are always here in my heart

The night of Agua-quente, the hill of Campinas,

The sun of Copacabana, and the eyes of you

Smile and tears that you gave to me

I got on the airplane with hiding it in my heart

And now I am walking with you

You are always here, always in my heart

The night of Agua-quente, the hill of Campinas,

The sun of Copacabana, and the eyes of you

The night of Ouro Preto, the wave of Porto Velho,

The wind of Belo Horizonte, and the eyes of you

And the eyes of you, and the eyes of you

Pausada Boa Viagem Leila

6. Ophelia

Ophelia, the sun is set
Ophelia, the moon is beautiful
In this world that is often invisible only the night sky taught me the truth
If there is happiness instead of sprinkled sadness Ophelia, which one do you choose?

Ophelia, in the never-end winter
Ophelia, I'm dreaming the spring is coming here soon the water flowing in the stream is cold and sad dream smile and tears, in the darkness of silence and confusion, the love is where to...
Ophelia, never-end dream?

Ophelia, someday the time has come
Let's pick flowers on the hill beyond the forest Ophelia, insert the flower in your hair
Let's go to the lake where the migratory bird float
Everyone lie unreasonably, swirling water, guilty and not guilty Ophelia, You may decide

Ophelia, the sun is set
Ophelia, the moon is rise
Ophelia, in the never-end winter
Ophelia, never-end dream in the darkness of silence
The flower of Bella Donna, in the confusion, a sadness destiny for you dancing
Ophelia, Ophelia, Ophelia, Ophelia,

7. Blues in a rainy days

Today it's raining and the ground will be smooth, that is fine
the rain into my heart so this wet feel can't take it whatever happened i won't be change, that's what I thought about it at that time cause I didn't know how hard to leave some feeling behind of me

The life is as the flower which hit by rain it won't be the plan as you think however you don't need to be pessimistic
we could have a rain shelter sometimes

It makes splash and rainfall, it looks like never-end
It raining for long like washing away this dirty world like a rain falling on the ground, like a water swirling in the stream
I am hoping that I can live like that

The life is as the flower which hit by rain
it won't be the plan as you think
however you don't need to be pessimistic
we could have a rain shelter sometimes

the rain into my heart so this wet feel can't take it

8. As I am

If you are at mountain, you get shower the sunlight from trees
If you are at river, you get moisturize by water
If you are at travel, you enjoy with people who you meet
When you close your eyes, you dream of splash

It's better you just live as you are, as you born Why that much we could drive us crazy and we have to live like that

If you walk on the street, you chat with a flower
And look up the sky, run after the breeze
You spinning memories in night view
The light turn on in deep on my mind

We should just live as we are if your dream is not come true, its not big deal Why that much we could drive us crazy and we have to live like that

The time is not pass and even not stack-up
The time is not pass and I am always here

We should just live as we are, as we born
Why that much we could drive us crazy and we have to live like that

If you are at mountain, you get shower the sunlight from trees
If you are at river, you get moisturize by water
If you are at travel, you enjoy with people who you meet
When you close your eyes, you dream of splash

9. Every time summer comes

I remember every time summer comes your smile of that day to decorate a beautiful flower on your straw hat skip on the grass barefoot, you are only seventeen

On the shores of a lake that we walked hand in hand
I feel the happiness that we born in this world
Your lips that I touched by Eucalyptus shade Primavera that were seeing us quietly

Dreamy days are over Me who left for the future and you who stayed there
I waved to you from the window of airplane
But you couldn't find me and kept look for

I remember every time summer comes
your smile of that day
You whispered that you like me
A white cloud in the blue sky in Brasilia where you live

Where are you now and how you smiling?
You are Seventeen who wears a pretty straw hat

10. Young man

Young man, Never give up Young man, hold the dream always Young man, Never give up Young man, don't forget the dream always

Even if this society throw you away,
Then you should know that this society is wrong
So don't be sad and just look through what is front of you

Grown ups are always weak and small
It's too weak to talk with you
They only talk like everything they know and show you how big they are

Young man, Never give up Young man, hold the dream always

If you hit the wall then you should step back little bit, so you can notice how big the wall is
And if you think that you can jump over the wall, don't need to be shy, just try jump up high to over it
But if you think that you can't jump over it, then just find detour

The people are always weak and small
It's too weak to talk with you if they says strength, after all that is crawling around in small steps like an ants

You don't have nothing to lose, it's so great thing
So don't look back and just go and see what you will be

Young man, Never give up Young man, hold the dream always
Young man, Never give up Young man, don't forget the dream always

11. Not think about tomorrow

Let me write a song by myself tonight and sing it until morning
On the desk there are a notebook, a pencil, an eraser and glass of whiskey
I have many things to write but can't write and can't finish
About old days and yesterday, about myself and about you

To drink whiskey and look up night sky, there are millions of stars shining in the dark March the beginning of Spring, to shivering in cold night breeze Human is so small, so small
To living on this tiny earth

I had fly to totally different world and has moved around to find a own dream
But I only found myself at last Wherever we are, we are same Wherever I am, there is only myself
Like a shadow which follow all the time, I can't run away from myself

Anyone can pretend to be strong, it's difficult to hide bearish
Maybe there are real sad thing but we could be patient
A love letter which I burned with tears, a picture which has so much memories
Like an anchor that has rust on the beach, a past that I can't give up

Why do I laugh and do I cry, in fact I can't find the answer
So far who have I make laugh and have I make cry
I still don't know what I lost, my past that just passed
Like a wind blowing, my past that just have passed

The life is just like happiness and sadness fill in to unglazed bowl Someday that will spread out and make people's heart shake

Not think about tomorrow, to forget about yesterday,
Might just live a day of today
Sing like breeze to laugh with you
Sing like breeze to laugh with you

12. Maybe You are...

I think I loved you
You come to my mind when I wake Your smile even the time i sleep at night to play together in my dream too to the sound of rain outside of window to remember your gentle move to the night when the snow is dancing

I sing a song which i wrote to you

A nostalgic day that break my heart
I want to write you a letter
Where are you now?
I think, I believe that I loved you
